COVID-19 update: WinSport suspends operations of ski & snowboard hill and Markin MacPhail Centre until further notice

CALGARY, Alta. – The health, safety and well-being of WinSport’s Team Members, guests and the community remain the top priorities for WinSport.

In light of ongoing developments resulting from COVID-19, effective March 16 at noon, WinSport is suspending all of its operations of the ski and snowboard hill and the Markin MacPhail Centre, including the Performance Training Centre and the arenas, until further notice.

Further details will follow regarding memberships, programs and bookings.

The Markin MacPhail Centre building and office tower remain open, and guests are advised to contact specific tenants for their hours of operation before arriving onsite.

About WinSport

The Calgary Olympic Development Association, which operates as WinSport, is a not-for-profit community-based organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park. Our vision is to be a world-leading centre for athletic development. We inspire human potential through the spirit of sport by introducing people to winter and mountain sports, helping them develop their skills and thereby igniting a passion for sport and lifelong learning. WinSport does not receive any direct government funding for our operations and we support our purpose by building on the legacy of the 1988 Winter Olympic Games and by delivering exceptional value and experiences to our guests.
