WinSport announces closure of ski and snowboard hill for Sunday and Monday

CALGARY, Alta. – WinSport announced today that the ski and snowboard hill at Canada Olympic Park will be closed to guests on Sunday (Feb. 7) and Monday (Feb. 8), due to forecasted cold temperatures.

The hill will be open as scheduled today (1-9 p.m.) and Saturday (9 a.m.-5 p.m.). With changing weather conditions, guests are advised to visit winsport.ca for the latest updates.

The tube park will also be closed today through Sunday but will re-open as scheduled on Feb. 12.

About WinSport

WinSport inspires human potential through the spirit of sport. The Calgary Olympic Development Association, operating as WinSport, is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park and the Bill Warren Training Centre in Canmore. WinSport also administers legacy funds that support the Olympic Oval. WinSport's mission has three pillars: to help people discover the joy and health benefits of sport; to encourage talented athletes to develop their skills; and to enable Canada's high-performance athletes to excel on the world stage. Financial commitments from Canadian governments and business have allowed WinSport to expand its sport and community offering over time; significant investment will be required in the coming years to renew the legacy facilities that have welcomed the world to the Calgary region for more than a generation.
