WinSport announces Wednesday closure of ski and snowboard hill

CALGARY, Alta. – WinSport announced today that due to high winds and deteriorating conditions, the ski and snowboard hill at Canada Olympic Park will be closed to guests today.

The hill was scheduled to be open from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m.

It is anticipated the hill will re-open for business on Thursday from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m.

About WinSport

WinSport inspires human potential through the spirit of sport. The Calgary Olympic Development Association, operating as WinSport, is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park and the Bill Warren Training Centre in Canmore. WinSport also administers legacy funds that support the Olympic Oval. WinSport's mission has three pillars: to help people discover the joy and health benefits of sport; to encourage talented athletes to develop their skills; and to enable Canada's high-performance athletes to excel on the world stage. Financial commitments from Canadian governments and business have allowed WinSport to expand its sport and community offering over time; significant investment will be required in the coming years to renew the legacy facilities that have welcomed the world to the Calgary region for more than a generation.
