WinSport announces closure of ski and snowboard hill Wednesday through Friday

CALGARY, Alta. – With Mother Nature walloping the city with cold temperatures in the coming days, WinSport is closing the ski and snowboard hill at Canada Olympic Park through Friday.

Environment Canada is currently forecasting highs of -27C, -32C and -28C, for the next three days, respectively. Although temperatures are forecasted to improve for the weekend, a decision on reopening for Saturday will be made on Thursday.

With changing weather conditions, guests are advised to visit winsport.ca for the latest updates.

About WinSport

*The Calgary Olympic Development Association, which operates as WinSport, is a not-for-profit community-based organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park. Our vision is to be a world-leading centre for athletic development. We inspire human potential through the spirit of sport by introducing people to winter and mountain sports, helping them develop their skills and thereby igniting a passion for sport and lifelong learning. WinSport does not receive any direct government funding for our operations and we support our purpose by building on the legacy of the 1988 Winter Olympic Games and by delivering exceptional value and experiences to our guests.
